ANTI-RAGGING CELL

Ansar Women's College and its residence facilities have zero tolerance for ragging and takes care to provide a ragging-free campus. The Institution has a committee on Anti-Ragging since 2010. To ensure compliance as per the UGC regulations on curbing the menace of ragging in higher educational institutions, 2009, the Anti-ragging Committee was nominated and headed by the Head of the Institution. It constitutes the representatives as prescribed by the UGC regulations including civil and police administration, local media, non-government organizations involved in youth activities and senior faculty members and representatives from parents and students. The committee meets often and discuss the new directions given by UGC. The anti-ragging squad ensures the implementation of the preventive measure to ensure ragging free campus.

Objectives

- The main objective of this cell is to create awareness among the students on the importance of "Ragging free Campus"
- Make them aware of the human rights issues involved in it and to keep continuous watch and vigilance over ragging issues so as to prevent its occurrence and recurrence.
- To take necessary measures to achieve the objectives of eliminating the menace of ragging within the Institution or outside
- To act on the defaulters who are found guilty of ragging and /or abetting ragging, actively or passively, or being part of a conspiracy to promote ragging

Anti-Ragging Policy

- University Grant Commission (UGC) guidelines notified code no F1-16\2009[CPP-II] dated 21/10/2009 On Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009 [under section 26(1)(g) of the UGC Act 1956] are strictly implemented at Ansar Women's college.
- According to the Honorable Supreme Court of India Ragging constitutes one or more of any acts which may cause or is likely to cause physical or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in a fresher or a junior student.
