

ANSAR WOMEN'S COLLEGE PERUMPILAVU

Anti -ragging cell 2020- 2021

Anti-Ragging cell is functioning very effectively in the college. The cell takes measures to create awareness among the senior students to absolve themselves from indulging in ragging which is a punishable crime under the law. Anti-ragging squad is also functioning very effectively. At the time of admission each student will have to take an anti-ragging pledge in the data card which is signed by the student as well as the parent. It is also mandatory as per the Hon. Supreme court and UGC/MHRD Regulations that the entire student fills in an Anti-Ragging oath online.

As a part of Anti-ragging cell, we organized an orientation programme for S3&S5 students on 16th November [Tuesday] at 2PM in the online mode. The programme started with prayer by Mis.Greeshma[Assistant professor department of Malayalam],and welcome address by Miss .Ranikutty.K.N [Assistant professor PG department of commerce &management studies].Mr.Shaju Mohemmedunni [Administrative officer, Ansari Charitable Trust] inaugurated the anti-ragging cell and delivered anti-ragging oath to students.Mr.Noor Muhammed [Trust member & Deen of Ansar women's College]was present in the programme.Felicitation speech delivered by Mr.Arif [Vice principal Ansar Women's College]and Ms.Kshmeela [Assistant professor 'Department of English].For a ragging free campus an orientation session was handled by Ms. Faritha J[Principal, Ansar Women's College].During this session she pointed out the objectives, necessity, and need for the formation of anti-ragging cell in each and every campus. She also explained the consequence and effects of ragging crime. She responded to queries from students with respect to anti-ragging and its consequences. Considering all facts relating to ragging, our honorable High Court ND Government authorities adopted various rules and regulations for preventing ragging in college campus. The session was concluded by a vote thanks by Ms.Anaswara[Assistant Professor PG department of Commerce &Management studies].
