ANTI RAGGING CELL 2018-19

Ragging is a crime and a criminal offence as declared by the Supreme Court of India. Ansar Women's College has been successful in creating a ragging-free campus. We have an anti-ragging cell which comprises of the Principal and other staff members. The students are sensitized on the ill effects of ragging and the legal proceedings in curbing the practice. Awareness is created through orientation programmes in the first semester as well as before the commencement of each academic year.

Ansar College for Women and its residence facilities have zero tolerance for ragging and try to maintain a ragging-free campus. Students are directed to follow the rules and regulations abide by the institution.

An Anti-ragging awareness programme is conducted for the senior students by Mis. Faritha. J [Principal Ansar Women's College]. In her talk she explained the anti-ragging programme aimed at making students aware laws of the country with respect to ragging and how it affectes the lives of people victimized by it. She responded to queries from students with respect to anti-ragging and the talk concluded with a call to "Say no to ragging".

An anti- ragging committee is constituted to ensure complaints with the provisions of the regulations as well as the provisions of any law for time being in force concerning ragging.

Students are encouraged to report any ragging act witnessed or experienced by them to the ragging committee or squad/students grievance redressal committee/any staff member with whom the student may feel comfortable.
