

ANNUAL REPORT

2018-2019

In the name of Allah, let me present before you the Annual Report for the academic year 2018-2019.

Ansar Women's College with a proud legacy of 16 years continues its journey towards academic excellence by shaping young minds through its 12 UG & 4 PG courses. Since its inception, the vision has been to channelize the students to be lifelong learners and make them realize the social realities of life.

The primary purpose of this report is to inform you about the college's accomplishments, the efforts it makes towards the realization of its goals. I would like to express my pride and privilege for the academic achievements of the institution. And also congratulate the University Toppers and Faculty members of the concerned Department.

During this academic year, the college experienced a surge in students' enrollment. we have 1402 students 84 faculties 18 non-teaching staff. The team of vibrant students and dedicated staff members are the strength of our institution.

Visionary zeal combined with committed service and action undoubtedly bears fruit. This is the secret of the glorious achievements that the college has gained in this academic year. But no institution can prosper without the active participation of all the stakeholders. Hence, I take this opportunity to thank all for their whole hearted support and cooperation. I also appreciate my teachers who took sincere efforts to achieve academic excellence in the teaching-learning process and in co-curricular and excelsior activities.

The activities of the academic year 2018-19 started from 1st June 2018. Fifth and Third semester UG classes commenced from 4th June, First semester from 3rd July, Third semester PG from 4th July and First semester PG from 23rd July.

ASHWAS Pain and Palliative Club

Today's college students are tomorrow's citizens who build up the next society. Recognizing that it is the duty of the college authorities to extrinsically motivate the students who need a constant push from outside may be in the form of a mentor to guide them in the right direction of Palliative and relief work, the club organized a motivational as well as perspective talk by the Social worker Sheeba Ameer who is the Secretary of a NGO named SOLACE which extends all kind of palliative, medical and financial assistance to children suffering from long term illness. Her motivational talk encouraged many and they joined the club with a spirit to work. College also arranged personality development programs and interactive sessions by professionals to correct their negatives and boost their positives in the concerned area they prefer to work.

In order to attract the first-year students to the club activities interactive session was held during the month of July with the help of P Surendran, the writer who gave a visionary on how they should dedicate their work for the betterment of the nation.

Financial Assistance 2018-19

ASHWAS as the word indicates is a club which ensures consolation and emotional support to those voiceless and economically downtrodden in the society. Almost all the programmes this year focused on extending emotional care and support specially to the deserving ones within the campus.

Mrs. Shobana	ASHWAS handed over to Mrs. Shobana the cleaning staff of the Ansari Charitable Trust and a widow who struggled to conduct her daughter's marriage with the helping hand of Rs 10000.
Mr. Ansar	On 10 th December 2018, Friday, Mr. Ansar, who was bedridden for past few years received help. His family was given a financial assistance of Rs 30,000 to build a house. It was the work of volunteers and teachers together that brought this great success. The amount was handed over by Fasma Miyan (State secretary, GIO).
Mrs. Shyla	On 10 th december, 2018, Tuesday, the team handed over ₹25,000 to Mrs. Shyla, staff in Hostel Mess who was struggling to build a home for her family. The amount was handed over by Mr. E A Kunjahammad (secretary, Ansari Charitable Trust).

Mrs. Bency	Mrs Bency a former staff nurse of the sister institution Ansar Hospital was bedridden as her leg was amputated due to severe diabetics. Mr K V Mohammed, Chairman handed over an amount of 30,000 collected from students to assist her medical aid.

Changadhikoru Kaithangu (Helping a Friend)

Prof Nadhiya R P sponsored a student of B. Com Co-operation and Rs 10000 towards her semester fee. On 27th December 2018, Thursday, the team lent a helping hand to a student of Commerce Department of AWC. A visually challenged student of English department of AWC was provided with a ration kit of ₹3500 which was a great source of comfort for her family. The student was also provided hostel facility and mess free of cost. They were having a tough time dealing with the daily expenses.

Positive Competition

Involving students in friendly competitions in college is another way to motivate them to work for the cause. Being part of healthy competitions helps to improve their positivity and they learn to appreciate and accept the success of others too. This friendly approach also enhances their spirit of winning in life while respecting the opponents and considering their feelings. So ASHWAS associated with the "Oasis the Pain and Palliative Unit of Government Engineering College", Thrissur and our student volunteers participated in the SPARSHAM 2K 18 - a literary and cultural fest organized by them on 25th Oct 2018. Theme focused on Role of youngsters in shaping Palliative Kerala. The students bagged various prizes and took part in seminars and interactive sessions thereafter. Thanuja Jasmine - first - cash prize; Rs.1000 for Malayalam essay writing competition

1. Hanan Abdul Jaleel - first - cash prize; Rs.1000 for English short story writing
2. Neha Azeez, Lameeza Sanbakh & Adina - first - cash prize; Rs.1000 for collage making.
3. Shadiya Shereef - second - cash prize; Rs.500 for Mapilapaatu.

To our astonishment all the winners contributed the amount for relief work. Students learn by doing, making, writing, designing, creating, and solving. Passivity dampens students' motivation and curiosity.
