ANNUAL REPORT 2016-2017

The activities of ASHWAS club in the year 2016-17 was inaugurated by Prof Tobio (HSST, Govt Higher Secondary School, Marathancode), who is a motivator and inspiration to all in his fight against blindness. Interactive session with ASHWAS volunteers was an eye opener since they could learn Nothing is Impossible

Changathikoru kythangu- Helping a friend (A New initiative)

The team Inaugurated a new scheme named "Changathikoru kythangu" this year. The main is to provide study material and necessary educational assistance to economically weak students. It's an initiative where teachers are also involved and the target group is our own students. The class coordinators will identify the needy student and inform the core committee, the committee will visit the house of the student and try to understand her present economic condition and assistance will be provided. Anyone can sponsor the educational needs. Many teachers, Trust members, administrative staff and affluent students themselves were ready to co-operate with the new initiative.

As a part of this, a parent came forward and paid a semester fee of Rs.12800/-for one of our students, Ms.Sumayya C.V.

A student of Dept of Physics was sponsored by Noor Mohammed of Ansari Charitable Trust.

A student named Sariga, inmate of Govt Children's Home was given admission in Dept of English. Hostel and all other educational facility were sponsored by the Principal in charge of Al Ameen law College.

FIELD VISIT

An outreach program was held on 16th November at Nirmala Sadhan, Kecheria caring unit of abandoned children. The club distributed fruits and diapers as per their request. The volunteers interacted with children and conducted various events.
