

ANTI RAGGING CELL

ANTI-RAGGING AWARENESS SESSION

The Anti-Ragging Cell of Ansar Women's College organized an awareness session on 13th August 2024, attended by over 300 second- and third-year students. Led by Advocate Mr. Primon P. Geever from the District Legal Service Authority (DLSA), the session focused on the legal consequences and psychological impact of ragging.

Mr. Geever provided a detailed explanation of ragging as a criminal offense, the institutional responsibilities in preventing it, and the legal repercussions for offenders, including suspension, expulsion, and imprisonment. He also discussed the importance of reporting incidents, the role of Anti-Ragging Committees, and the protection of complainants. In addition, Mr. Geever emphasized the emotional and mental toll of ragging on students, highlighting its long-term effects on academic performance and well-being.

The session aimed to equip students with the knowledge and tools to create a safer, more respectful campus environment.

SHORT FILM PRESENTATION

As part of Anti-Ragging Week, Ansar Women's College held a short film presentation on August 13, 2024, featuring "The Last Walk," an award-winning film from the UGC Anti-Ragging initiative. Attended by over 300 students, the event aimed to raise awareness about ragging's emotional and psychological impact. The film highlighted key themes such as victim isolation, bystander responsibility, and the long-lasting consequences of ragging on both victims and perpetrators. It also emphasized the importance of unity and support in combating ragging. The event successfully engaged students, reinforcing the college's commitment to a safe and respectful campus environment.

DIGITAL POSTER MAKING COMPETITION

As part of Anti-Ragging Week, Ansar Women's College organized a Digital Poster Making Competition on 14th August 2024, with the theme "Together Against Ragging." The event, coordinated by Anusmaya V from the Department of Psychology, aimed to raise awareness about the harmful effects of ragging through creative expression.

Seventeen students participated, with posters judged on creativity, adherence to the theme, and message strength. Shahbana Gafoor (S5 BSc Psychology) won first prize, followed by Afra Sadharudheen (S5 Psychology) and Amina Shaji (S3 BBA). The competition successfully promoted unity and empathy, reinforcing the college's commitment to a safe and inclusive environment.

THEMATIC DANCE PERFORMANCE

As part of Anti-Ragging Week, Ansar Women's College, in collaboration with the Department of PG Psychology, organized a thematic dance performance on 16th August 2024 at Peace Square. The performance, led by Anshida from S5 BSc Psychology and coordinated by Assistant Professor Anusmaya, used dance to raise awareness about ragging's emotional and psychological toll.

The performance followed a victim's journey through stages of hope, fear, trauma, support, and empowerment, emphasizing the importance of unity, empathy, and support in combating ragging. The event left a lasting impact, using art to promote awareness and reinforce the college's zero-tolerance policy towards ragging.
